St. Joseph's 2—St. Philip's 1.

May 17. The Varsity evened up accounts with St. Philip's on the Sabbath day by the narrow margin of 2-1. Ricks found himself in a hole right in the jump when a hit and Kihm's two errors filled the sacks, but the big fellow tightened up and no runs resulted. Roof started the scoring in the third when he singled, stole second, took third on McNamara's peg to center and scored when Kihm's grounder fooled Larkin. Schellinger led off in the sixth with a hit; he pilfered the keystone stop and came all the way home on Deery's crack to left, Mayer's throw being wild. St. Philip's threw a scare into the home camp in the seventh, when King singled and Mayer hoisted one too high for McGinty to hold. King scored but Mayer was nipped at the plate. The Reps continued their good work although their batting was light. Ricks showed improved control issuing only two passes to first. Martin also pitched splendidly, and his teammates showed themselves a very gentlemanly bunch of ball tossers.

St. Joseph 6, Cathedral 5.

In a game replete with hits, errors, sensational fielding, rag chewing and about everything else that claims some relation to the national sport, pitcher Tommy Normoyle and his accomplice, Cathedralites, went down in defeat before the Varsity on Thursday, the final score being 6 to 5. The contest was very interesting and by no means one-sided. Murphy's men got an early lead, Kihm getting around the sacks in the first, and McGinty and Roof making it two more in the second round when three successive safe swats followed a pass. Ricks counted in the fifth and Schellinger scored two more in the seventh with a three sack wallop. The visitors accumulated their quintet of tallies largely through the stick work of Corckery and Kelly, the former bagging four hits in five attempts, and errors by Maloney and Annen. Score:—

SENIOR LEAGUE.

The Pirates busted the Giants proud 1000 pct. in a five inning game stretched to eight innings. The game was replete with fast plays and timely batting in which Silverstein with a home run, and Fogarty with a two bagger and two singles, together with two stolen bases, were the heroes. The Pirates and Phillies clashed in one of the heaviest hitting games of the season. Farrell with three hits, Smith and W. Murphy with a two bagger and single did the stick work for the Phillies while Dues with two clouts and Lynch and Burger with two baggers kept the Pirates in the game. The Phillies doubled the score 4-2 on the Cardinals when they out hit them 8-3. Meyer and Ambos each poling two hits while Farrell held his opponents to three hits. The Cardinals and Giants crossed bats in one of the heaviest hitting games of the season. Not so many hits were made but they most all went for extra bases. L. De Jaco and Fackler poled out a three bagger each, while Schall, McCarthy and Schwartz each connected for two bases. Schwartz chalked up eleven strike outs in seven innings. The Phillies triumphed over the Cardinals in a pitchers battle between Becker and Fackler. Meyer's team collected nine hits while the Beckmanites were getting seven. In the Cardinal-Pirate game Kanney and Lynch were the stars in the raised mound but the batters back of Kanney connected more timely than the Lynchites. The Phillies-Pirates game was the most interesting of the season each team caroming nine hits but the Phillies chased two extra tallies across in the ninth. Lynch, Downey and Breen were the batting stars.

Junior League.

The Tigers suffered three overwhelming defeats. Seyfried's team snowing them under 12-4; Kuhn's team taking advantage of O'Meara's, and McGahay's wildness smothered them under a 20-1 score, May 20, and came back against them May 21, and by Ambos' pitching doubled the score in a 12-6 game. The Naps have played consistent ball but excelled their opponents chiefly in batting, Ambos batting 1000 percent in one game and Kuhn 800 in the game of May 21. The downtrodden Tigers played the best game of the past two weeks when they forced Manager Gabel's team to accept terms of 5-3. It was a slugging match in which O'Meara, Hunt, Schmidt and Kovaschitz figured prominently. The Naps were not choicy about whom they run up a score on, so they picked out the Red Sox as easy victims, and by an avalanche of hits, eight stolen bases, three two baggers, and Baran's home run they forced the struggling Red Sox to taste an 11-1 defeat. The Red Sox' victory over the Tigers was earned on clean hitting and plenty of it, Daly's pitching in pinches, and his teammates' fielding and base running. With the exception of the trailing Tigers the league is drawing to a close home stretch with the Naps in a safe lead, followed in quick succession by the White Sox and Red Sox.

St. Joe Wins First Track Meet.

MAY 16.

Pessimists who predicted that the track team would go under before it was launched must have felt a bit humiliated Saturday afternoon when the scorekeeper announced that St. Joe had won its first track meet by a score of 71-60. It certainly was a treat to see St. Joe's men, many of whom were witnessing the first track meet of their lives, take event after event from Rensselaer, especially in view of the fact that individuals of the latter team participated in H. S. championship meets. The team is certainly deserving credit for its successful work. It is hoped that at least one more meet can be held before commencement. Deery proved himself St. Joe's all-around athlete by totaling 23 points.

Following are the events, winners, time or distance:—

1. Low Hurdles: Downey, St. J., 8 4-5 s.
2. 60 yd. Dash: Putts, R., 7 2-5 sec.
3. 60 yd H. Hurdles; Fettig S. J., 9 4-5 s
4. 100 yd. Dash: Babcock, R., 11 2-5 s.
5. Pole Vault; Hemphill, R., 9½ feet.
6. ½ Mile Run. Putts, R., 2 min. 23 2-5 s.
7. Stand. Br. Jump. Deery, St. J. 9½ ft.
8. Run Br Jump Deery, St. J. 17 ft. ½ i.
9. 220 yd Run. Downey, St. J. 27 1-5 s.

Campus Heroes. No. 4.

In Memoriam Brother David.

When men's hair begins to assume a tinge of gray, when morsels of bread slip through the place of missing teeth we generally respect them as men of experience and look up to them with that wonderment which their wisdom demands. Youth is fickle but experience knows the snares of temerity. Meditating on these sublime themes we are shocked to see a trick perpetrated by a youngster on a man old enough to be his grandfather. But to aggravate matters the trick was not a novelty direct from Parisian shops but one played upon good old Chris Columbus when his team crossed bats with the Spanish University nine on the sand lots of old San Domingo. The "hidden" ball trick pulled off on our victim was old when he was cutting his teeth, he has seen it duplicated but fell to it unawares. We blame the perpetrator for picking upon such a harmless and benign victim. His respect for the aged and reverence for tender feelings should have softened his hardened heart. But still we of a younger generation should have no pity for a man of such experience as it was simply a case of a promising youngster outwitting an old timer who really thinks that he's a come back. Such a rotten, boneheaded, outrageous, and ignorant play ought to convince Bro David that he cannot pit his 38 years of experience against the strategy of present-day youngsters, and as a mere suggestion to the wise, we would advise him to confine himself to the barber and laundry trade where speed of hands and feet are needed while the brain need not be awakened from its usual lethargy.

Our College Nine.

Now don't you think our College nine
Is just right there and simply fine?
Just look at Kihm so quick and trim,
And Herman Dan so full of vim;
And there is Moon, though slow, yet sure,
That Fitz is nifty you will conjure.
The same with Mack and Shelly too,
And Deery, the boy with errors few.
Why here's Old Chink, the man with steam,
With catcher Roof, a perfect dream.
Now think of Ricks, the smoky boy
And Bruin, a shark without alloy.
So here we have those classy lads.
Then lift your heads and doff your lids,
And take a breath and fairly scream
For Collegeville's most snappy team.
Now last of all please yell with me
Three hearty cheers for S. J. C.
N. A. M.

Tennis.

Mindful of the fact that St. Joe's colors had been hauled down in the first match of the season, W. Murphy, B. Smith, Deery and Schellinger played fast and consistent tennis against their opponents in the return match on the home court, May 15. Score: St. Joe 4, Rensselaer 1. Wednesday, May 20. Deery, Schellinger, McGinty and Silverstein journeyed to Rensselaer and repeated the performance. However, when Rensselaer with some recruits met H. O'Connel, S. Beckman, McLeod and Pike, May 23, the score was reversed by a like count of 4 - 1 in favor of the men from town.

The Balfeds.

Of all the teams of Fed'ral fame,
The Balfeds are the peer.
Why they have never lost a game
Which has been played this year.

The one real cause of their renown
Is plainer than a dream.
The greatest ball stars of the town
Play on the Balfed team.

Lause the famous manager
On second gets the ball.
And captain Kuntz creates a stir
On first. He's best of all.

Farrell the man behind home plate
And "Whitey" Hennis too,
By kind assistance of their fate,
Ne'er let the Ball go through.

Just look how Luetkemeyer stands
There in the pitcher's box!
Joe Mehler at the short stop sands
Is frisky as a fox.

On third is where our frenchman plays,
(Of course Benoits the fan.)
And back of him a little ways
You'll see Bill Eilerman.

Way out in center field is Beck,
The second Tyrus Cobb.
While Fortman nearly breaks his neck
There on the right field job.

Now since you have seen all our stars
Please open up your heads.
Just root and root to beat the cars,
For Lause's great Balfeds.

F. R.

LOCALS.

Campus Paradox: - Beck and Rodgers were watching the game. "What inning is it?" asked Raphael. Beck pulled out his watch to find out, but it had stopped. Just then Jim McIntyre strolled along swinging his arms and furnished the necessary information.
